Illinois Department of Insurance Disciplinary Report for February 2016

SPRINGFIELD – July 22, 2016. The Illinois Department of Insurance today announced the following disciplinary actions:

Suspension:

Dino Bradford, Maywood – Insurance producer's license suspended effective December 21, 2015. Mr. Bradford had been licensed to sell casualty, fire, health, and life since 2014. The suspension was based on a certification from the Department of Healthcare and Family Services that Mr. Bradford was more than 30 days delinquent in complying with a child support order.

Rodney W. Marzette, Chicago – Insurance producer's license suspended effective December 7, 2015. Mr. Marzette had been licensed to sell life since 2013. The suspension was based on a certification from the Department of Healthcare and Family Services that Mr. Marzette was more than 30 days delinquent in complying with a child support order.

Stipulation and Consent Order:

Anna Slota, Elk Grove Village – Stipulation and Consent Order signed February 1, 2016. Ms. Slota has been licensed as a public adjuster since 2014. The Order included allegations that Ms. Slota operated under the name of an unlicensed business entity (Adjusting 101, Inc.), permitted an unlicensed representative to conduct business for which a license was required, and failed to use a public adjuster contract that was approved by the Department. The Order also assessed a civil penalty of $5,000.

Herbert Witter, Chicago / Insurance Brokers, Inc., Chicago – Stipulation and Consent Order signed December 15, 2015, supersedes the Order of Revocation dated December 31, 2014. Mr. Witter has been licensed to sell casualty, fire, health, life, and variable contracts since 1987. Insurance Brokers, Inc. has been a licensed business entity since 1995. The Order includes allegations that Mr. Witter and Professional Service, Inc. submitted applications to an insurer and then cancelled the policies beyond the allotted timeframe. The Order also includes allegations that Mr. Witter failed to forward collected premiums to an Insurer. The Order also assessed a civil penalty of $7,500.00.

Debbie Brooks, Evergreen Park – Stipulation and Consent Order signed January 19, 2016. Ms. Brooks has been licensed to sell casualty, fire, health, life, and variable contracts since 2000. The Order includes allegations that Ms. Brooks allowed an individual to sign another individual's name on an application for insurance. The Order also assessed a civil penalty of $1,500.00.

Denials:
